By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BONN (AP) — British Prime Minister Macmillan said today he promised West German Chancellor Adenauer that Britain will leave "no gaps" in Western defenses because of its plans to cut troop strength.

But Macmillan, at a news conference winding up his two-day visit to Bonn, would not say flatly whether he had won Adenauer's agreement to the British shift to atomic-armed forces with less troops.

He said, instead, that Adenauer accepted his views "with understanding and full realization of the strong and continued purpose of the British people to play their part in defense."

Macmillan and Adenauer signed a joint communique announcing they are "in full agreement on the main aims of their policies."

The communique made no mention of the differences over plans to trim British forces in Germany. A diplomatic source said the two government chiefs had moved "much closer together" on the question after starting out "miles apart."

Macmillan said the British troop cuts are a "gradual and continual" affair.

"We do not intend to leave gaps during the course of the transition," he declared. "Effective strength will be maintained at a high level."

Macmillan said manpower alone "is not the sole test of military capability." He added he had assured Adenauer that the British forces would continue to be "a source of real strength to the NATO alliance."

He said the shift would be to troops more mobile, better trained and with greater fire power.

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
BONN (AP) — British Prime Minister Macmillan and West German Chancellor Adenauer announced today they are "in full agreement on the main aims of their policies."

A communique issued after two days of talks here made no mention of differences still existing over Britain's plans to cut her forces in Germany. But a diplomatic source said the two government chiefs had moved "much closer together" on the question after starting out "miles apart."

Apparently the West Germans still hope to get a modification of the British plan. The communique said West German Defense Minister Franz Josef Strauss will visit London soon to "discuss defense questions of mutual interest."

It also said Macmillan and Adenauer had agreed on the "need for NATO to retain aggressive deterrent against aggression, including an adequate shield of land, sea and air forces for the protection of the territory of the member states."

The question apparently was what constitutes an "adequate shield."

Britain already has started carrying out its plan for withdrawing nearly 30,000 men from its army in Germany and trimming the supporting tactical air force by nearly half. The move resulted from Britain's desire to reduce defense expenditures and at the same time streamline its

Another Fight Over Postal Funds Brewing

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another big fight over Post Office Department funds was brewing on Capitol Hill today, with renewed cuts in postal services a possibility starting July 1.

Postmaster General Summerfield told Congress yesterday such cuts probably will have to be made unless the lawmakers give him 70 to 90 million dollars more in fiscal 1958 than was asked in President Eisenhower's budget.

This statement was made to a Senate Appropriations subcommittee just before it voted to restore 32 million dollars of the 50 millions sliced by the House from the 3 1/2 billion dollars requested for the postal agency in 1958.

On the House side, meanwhile, the Post Office Committee, considered rate increases for newspapers and magazines as part of a bill to reduce the postal deficit. But a boost in rates would not affect the request for bigger appropriations. Congress fixes the ceiling on Post Office expenditures, and the department cannot spend directly the money it takes in.

Summerfield said that he would need full restoration of the 50 million in addition to the 70 to 90 million in extra funds. He said a "phenomenal increase" in mail volume in recent weeks makes the additional request necessary, and added that apparently the flood of mail would continue.

The action of the subcommittee was expected to be upheld by the full Senate Appropriations Committee today.

The subcommittee voted a total of $3,917,000,000 in the bill $3,224,000,000 for the Post Office Department, $891,500,000 for the treasury, and $1,480,000 for the tax court. The only restoration was in postal funds; the 22 million House cut in the Treasury allotment was allowed to stand.

This was the first of the fiscal 1958 money bills to be acted on by a Senate subcommittee. So far eight have passed the House.

In this instance, the subcommittee action was to restore about 40 percent of the over-all House cut in the bill.

Famous Painter Says Hollywood Ruined Him

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — "Hollywood ruined me," said Harry Lachman, a famous painter who became a film director and now at 71 has returned to his brush and easel. Never heard of Harry Lachman?

Well, he was a pioneer impressionist whose works hang in half a dozen leading museums and won him the French Legion of Honor. Opera singer Mary Garden once bought one of his paintings with a $3,000 check she had just received for singing "Aida."

Endorsing the check to Lachman she said, "Art for art!"

Remember "Baby Take a Bow," the picture that "springboarded" Shirley Temple to stardom? Lachman directed it.

Actually, Lachman, a slender, very wrinkled man with fabulous memories, has had five successful

Forest Fires Scorch Areas in Northeast

By The Associated Press

Forest fires continued today to threaten parched woodlands of the nation's northeast area.

In Michigan, fire fighters kept an anxious eye on the state's tinder-dry sections after a winning fight over one of the worst timber blazes in years.

During the month long dry spell in New York state, 30 forest fires blackened almost 8,000 acres of woodland.

Massachusetts declared emergency and Maine clamped restrictions on its forests last night as fires gutted thousands of woodland acres in those states. New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut and New Jersey.

In Michigan, a 750-acre fire in the big Huron National Forest near Lake Huron was brought under control last night after a full half-day's battle by 400 persons.

In Maine a wind-whipped blaze roared through 3,200 acres of forest in Jackson last night. The fire isolated a sporting camp owner and his wife, but forestry officials expected to get them out.

A fire raging through Manchester, Mass., woodlands, threatening fashionable residences, appeared under control last night. Manchester is about 20 miles north of Boston.

Several homes were destroyed in the Plymouth-Carver area in southeastern Massachusetts.

In New York State, three houses and a barn were destroyed. A woman pleaded guilty to violating Gov. Averell Harriman's forest-closing order and was fined $75.

For a time yesterday the Wurtsmith Air Force Base at Oscoda, Mich., lay in the path of flaming timberland.

Mystery Man Sentenced to 30 Months

ST. LOUIS (AP) Joseph Costello, ex-convict head of the Ace Cab Co., and a principal in the Greenleaf ransom mystery in prison today for violation of the National Firearms Act.

Joseph John Canella, a supervisor of the cab company who was convicted with Costello, was sentenced to 18 months.

"This is a serious offense and there is a good, sound reason for enforcement of the law under which you were convicted," said Federal District Judge George H. Moore in imposing sentence.

They were convicted last month by a federal jury of violating a section of the law that prohibits a person convicted of a felony to transporting firearms across a state line.

Costello, a mysterious figure, was convicted of burglary in 1936.

"I know I was convicted by a jury but in my own heart I know I'm innocent," said the soft-spoken Costello.

Canella told the court "I bought the guns and brought 'em over here but Costello had nothing to do with it."

Judge Moore ordered them to surrender May 27 to begin serving their sentences. They will remain free under bond until that time.

Costello was mentioned as a possibly tipster in the arrest of the kidnap-killers of Greenleaf and Greenleaf in 1933. He refused to answer grand jury questions as to his whereabouts at the time of the arrests. The grand jury was investigating the disappearance of nearly half of the reported $500,000 ransom a mystery that still remains unsolved.

Washburn Asks For Support In Sales Tax Fight

FORT SMITH, (AP) — Hope Publisher Alex H. Washburn, campaigning for repeal of the three percent sales tax by popular vote, appealed for support in the Fort Smith area here last night.

Washburn made personal appearances on local television stations urging support for his petition calling for a vote on the sales tax increase passed by the recent General Assembly.

Washburn, publisher of the Hope Star, said Gov. Orval Faubus had referred to his efforts at the dedication of the University Medical Center with the warning that "any disruption at the ballot boxes of the program approved by the General Assembly will jeopardize the complete functioning of this institution."

The publisher told the television audience "I interpret this as meaning that I am attempting to tear down the public temple. The governor tells only of the side of the Philistines who fell with the temple, but the Bible tells both sides."

Washburn said the Arkansas Constitution provides that "an abused and angry people may seek redress by the oldest instrument known to Anglo-Saxon countries — circulating petitions for a popular vote."

He asked for people to sign his petition now being circulated and for donations to help pay for the gathering of 60,000 signatures.

Washburn said that 22 years ago "I helped create the sales tax at two per cent, promoting it through my newspaper and testifying for it in the Legislature."

"Conditions are vastly different now," he said, adding that "then we were still in the depression and property was broke and could not support public schools. The sales tax was necessary. It was called temporary until property could resume its share of the load."

"Today property has inflated in value to keep pace with the times but the wide span of working citizens whose very existence is threatened by tax burdens is the victim of this inflation. Yet property escapes its fair share of the load."

Washburn has maintained that the sales tax increase hurt a class of citizens that can least afford extra burdens.

House O. K.'s Federal Aid to States

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Education Committee approved today a freshly pruned 1 1/2-billion-dollar program of federal aid to the states for school construction. The vote was 20-9.

Backers hoped that the reduced amount would lessen opposition to the bill in congress.

It calls for a five-year program of 300 million dollars a year in grants, to be matched by the states, to help build needed classrooms.

Recognizing the talk of economy in Washington these days, the committee voted 23-3 yesterday, to cut 500 million dollars off the two billion dollar program recommended by subcommittee chairman Rep. Bailey (D-W.Va.)

Rep. Bailey (D-W.Va.) chairman of the subcommittee, told a reporter he had no doubt that the cut in the bill "helped it at the White House" and bettered its chances in Congress.

Bailey said he went along with the cut "in order to preserve harmony and go out on the floor with a unified front."

He called the measure a "realistic bipartisan" compromise.

Polish Reds Meeting to Get Underway

WARSAW (AP) — Informed sources say the Polish communist party's campaign, on-again Central Committee meeting will finally get underway no later than next Monday.

At the committee's last meeting, in October, its liberal wing put party boss Wladyslaw Gomulka into power, defied a Soviet objection headed by Nikita Khrushchev and promised greater independence from the Kremlin.

More changes in the party leadership at the time are being discussed widely are those of the "conservative" elements, including some old Stalinists for a smaller say in the party council.

Among those trying to return to the Polish communist party's ruling council are Franciszek Mazur, Henryk Jablonski, Jerzy Buzko, and a dozen or so other once powerful

Grand Jury Takes Up Election Violations

A Hempstead County Grand Jury was called into session Thursday morning to consider evidence in connection with the distribution of unsigned literature and other possible similar violations in connection with the recent city manager election in Hope.

One man, J. L. Brown, has been charged with distribution of illegal political literature by C. V. Nunn Jr., deeply prosecuting attorney. He was arrested and posted bond a few days after the election April 24.

In his instruction to the grand jury this morning Judge Lyle Brown said:

"There was recently held in the City of Hope an election wherein the people voted on what is generally called the City Manager form of government. During the course of the campaign, advertisements and circulars, or handbills, were used by the proponents and opponents, respectively, of the issue to be voted upon."

"It has been called to my attention that in connection with campaign literature, Act 261 of 1945 has been violated. In fact, the Prosecuting Attorney represents to me that one charge of violating this statute has already been filed. This action was taken because in his opinion the guilt of the party charged was clearly established and did not require detailed investigation by the Grand Jury. He tells me that there is evidence that other parties may have been involved in the alleged violations. After giving the matter thorough consideration, the Court and the Prosecuting Attorney felt that the ends of justice would best be served by submitting the entire subject matter to the Grand Jury. We were joined in this opinion by one or more parties whose names have been publicly mentioned in connection therewith."

"Furthermore, the Grand Jury is the best means we have of assuring clean and honest elections. That is why, as a matter of policy, I am always inclined to turn over to the Grand Jury any question of alleged law violations incident to elections. Also persons filed against in political matters directly by the Prosecuting Attorney in lieu of a Grand Jury indictment have been known to cry 'politics.' It may not be justified. So when such matters are processed by a Grand Jury composed of 16 select citizens it serves as a bulwark against political persecution."

More Trouble Likely in Columbia

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — More turbulence appeared in prospect today for Colombia after the reelection of President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla by the government-picked Constituent Assembly.

Ignoring widespread demands for a popular election, the assembly voted 76-1 last night to give Rojas another four-year term beginning in August 1958.

Violent protest demonstrations led by students and business strikes have kept the country in an uproar since Friday. Troops and armored cars guarded the capital as the assembly met.

The assembly, which Rojas named to rewrite the constitution, voted two days earlier to suspend constitutional articles requiring popular election of the chief executive and forbidding a president to succeed himself. Rojas took power in a military coup in 1953.

Before and after the assembly meeting, police broke up several scattered demonstrations with tear gas. Reports reached Bogota that from 15 to 50 persons were killed and more than 100 injured Tuesday in anti-Rojas riots in Cali, 185 miles southwest of here. Unconfirmed reports said police used bayonets and gunfire against the crowd.

Five persons were officially reported killed in Bogota and Cali over the weekend.

About 1,000 poorly dressed pro-Rojas demonstrators took to the streets before the assembly meeting and demanded the reopening of all banks and industries.

The elder Kennedy took over. "So you went to back, with whom you had an abnormal business relationship, to find what your competitors were going to do. That's a very strange request."

"I do not think so," said Wilson.

"I'm interested in your ethical approach — and your company's," the senator said.

Brewer Accused in Connection With Dave Beck

By HERBERT FOSTER

WASHINGTON (UP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) charged today that one of the nation's largest brewers "engaged in an abnormal business relationship" with Teamster Union President Dave Beck to get information on its competitors.

Sen. Kennedy, a member of the Senate Labor Relations committee, tongue-lashed John L. Wilson, executive vice president of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., brewers of Budweiser and other beers.

The committee is investigating charges that Beck misused his power as union president to fatten his own purse.

Sen. Kennedy said evidence showed that Anheuser-Busch gave Beck the nation's largest Budweiser distributorship, shipped him special orders of beer when the supply was short, offered to buy him out at a high price after trouble with him, and extended credit so someone else could buy him out.

Sen. Kennedy added the Wilson testified he called on Beck to settle a construction strike at an Anheuser-Busch plant in Los Angeles. He charged that Wilson also went to Beck to get "completely improper information" on whether other brewers would resist a Teamster demand for a wage increase in California.

"Mr. Beck has engaged in an abnormal relationship not to Mr. Beck's credit or your company's," Sen. Kennedy told Wilson.

Under questioning by the senator's young brother, committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy, Wilson said he had gone of Beck for "advice" on labor matters.

He said he looked up Beck in Chicago in 1954 and asked how strongly some members of the California Brewer's Institute, a beer-maker's association, would resist a pending demand by Beck's union for a large wage increase. He said Beck told him resistance would not be strong.

The elder Kennedy took over. "So you went to back, with whom you had an abnormal business relationship, to find what your competitors were going to do. That's a very strange request."

"I do not think so," said Wilson.

"I'm interested in your ethical approach — and your company's," the senator said.

Rodin and Modigliani. Modigliani, slowly starving and soon to die by his own hand, mistook Lachman for a tourist at their first meeting, offered to paint his portrait for one franc.

"At that time he was even giving his paintings away for hair-cuts," said Lachman grimly. "Now they are priceless."

Lachman sold 45 of the 55 paintings at his first one-man show, including two to the Luxembourg Museum.

He accepted an invitation by director Rex Ingram to help make "Mare Nostrum," then became a director himself.

"Then I am taken to Hollywood, and I am ruined," he said ruefully. "I made a really great picture with Spencer Tracy called 'Face in the Sky.' The critics said it was 'an artistic gem,' a frightful thing to say about a picture then."

Lachman then became a successful novelty manufacturer. Last year he took up painting again at the urging of Armand Hammer, a Manhattan art gallery owner, and Mrs. Grace Robinson, former wife of Edward G. Robinson, movie actor.

Lachman, who has an exhibit now at the Hammer Gallery, is exuberant because he feels he has regained his old mastery of the brush.

"It was a mistake ever to give it up," he mourned. "The films were not worth it. I lost 30 years out of my life."

insisted that what is wanted on Germany's attack-vulnerable northern plain is manpower now and not atomic weapons in the future.

Macmillan was said to have replied that atomic weapons would give the reduced British force in Germany a much more potent pinch than maintenance of previous manpower levels.

The Assembly of the Western European Union, an advisory body, adopted a resolution in Strasbourg yesterday declaring any reduction in Allied ground forces on the Continent would be a mortal blow to Western defense.

Macmillan and Adenauer agreed that U. N. efforts to bring about controlled disarmament "must continue to be promoted energetically." But they added that existing defense organizations must continue to be strengthened "as long as the Soviet bloc are not willing to enter into the necessary comprehensive arrangements."

Robinson Not to Fight Before Sept.

NEW YORK (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson definitely wants to wait until September before he takes on Carmen Basilio in the hottest boxing match of the year.

The four-time middleweight champion visited Jim Norris, the president of the International Boxing Club, yesterday and talked Norris out of any thought of a July bout with Basilio.

"After his experiences with Joey Maxim in the heat, Ray said he has a mental block about the hot months," said Norris. He referred to Robinson's TKO by Maxim in the steaming heat, June 25, 1932, the only time Sugar Ray ever was stopped.

Norris was busy on the phone all day, trying to line up a June 7 TV fight. A proposed featherweight title match between Cherif Hamia of Algeria and Hogan (Kid) Bassey of Nigeria fell through. Hamia's manager informed the IBC the fighter was going to North Africa to visit his

Ferguson Back in Hog Lineup

FAYETTEVILLE (AP) — Coach Jack Mitchell expected fullback Jerry Ferguson of Rogers, who suffered a back injury in Razorback spring football practice recently, to return to the lineup today or tomorrow.

Score Will Have Some Sight in Eye

CLEVELAND (AP) — In a darkened hospital room without visitors pitcher Herb Score waited out the hours today. He knew he would have some sight in his injured right eye. But would it be enough to continue a brilliant baseball career?

Thousands of baseball fans everywhere hope and pray with him. Phone calls about him light up the Lakeside Hospital switchboard every few seconds. Telegrams and mail are flooding in to the Cleveland Indians' strike-out king.

Tell everyone thanks, the south-paw says. The waiting will go on through today and at least part of tomorrow, Dr. Charles Thomas, eye specialist, has indicated. Extensive bleeding started Tuesday night when a liner from New York Yankee Gil McDougald's bat felled Score. That hemorrhaging has stopped before the tell-tale examination can be made.

There was guarded optimism in Dr. Thomas' reports last night that the 23-year-old pitcher has "improved," and the specialist indicated there would be some sight — the amount doubtful.

"The eye will be saved," Dr. Thomas said. "It is beginning to clear up. I can't tell yet the full extent of the damage."

"There is no brain injury," the doctor said. While Score himself has admitted to considerable pain, he maintained a cheerful, bantering attitude with teammates and newsmen who talked with him before a ban was put on visiting to give him more rest. He is putting much faith in prayer.

To his mother, Mrs. Ann Score in Lake Worth, Fla., he sent word asking her not to make the trip to Cleveland. Mrs. Score, who reared the pitcher, a devout Catholic, said she was content to stay home and continue the prayers in which she and some neighbors spent most of Tuesday night.

Sharing in her concern was McDougald, who felt so downcast he said at first that he might quit baseball. Said Mrs. Score: "It certainly wasn't his fault, and I'm sure everything will come out all right."

Through General Manager Hank Greenberg, Score sent McDougald this message: "Tell him that it's just part of the game. It wasn't his fault. I don't hold any grudge or ill feeling at all."

Save 1/3
Make out-of-town calls station-to-station

Why pay more when you don't have to? Long Distance charges for station-to-station calls are about 1/3 lower than for person-to-person service. You can make three calls for the price of two.

So start saving money now. Make your out-of-town calls station-to-station.

Here's how easy it is to make a station-to-station call

Just tell the Long Distance operator:

1. The city you're calling
2. The telephone number you're calling

Like this: "Omaha... Circle 5-1098"

Even if you don't know the number, your call can be charged at the lower rate. Just ask that the call be made station-to-station. We'll get the number for you, and you can jot it down for faster service on future calls.

Call by number... it's twice as fast

Seven Guides to Mental Health—by Henry Harrington.

You don't want to go crazy? Of course not—nobody does. And it's comforting to know that people who worry about it never do.

The following guides to mental health come from Mrs. Genevieve Dodge, for many years Chief Psychopathic Parole Officer for Los Angeles County, California.

"Taking a broad view," Mrs. Dodge told me, "nearly all mental illness, when not stemming from definite physical disease, is the result of selfishness. If you want some 'don'ts,' here you are: No. 1 'Don't let the sense of your own importance run away with you. Cultivate a truly humble spirit. Then when disaster comes, you will be able to see it in a true perspective."

Lana Claims Married Life Not for Her

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Not me; no sir, I'll never get married again." The familiar words came from an unfamiliar source — Lana Turner. Many a recently divorced star utters the same sentiment. But Lana This is too much. "Don't you think I've just about had it?" she reasoned.

She had a point there. She has been married five times to four men — Artie Shaw, Steve Crane (twice), Bob Topping and Lex Barker, from whom she recently separated.

I reminded her that her pal Clark Gable and a similar no-marriage edict — and some time later married for the fifth time, to Kay Spreckels.

"That's right; he did," she reflected, adding with a giggle, "Well, you had to make conversation."

She said she hadn't started dating again. "I haven't got any playmates," she pouted. No doubt the situation will improve as soon as this word gets around.

Perhaps as an antidote to unhappiness, Lana has plunged herself into work. She is now making "The Lady Takes a Flyer" with Jeff Chandler, her first film in almost a year and a half. During her lunch hours, she is undergoing fittings for wardrobe in "Peyton Place," which she starts the day after she finishes "Lady."

"I only wish I could have started this grind with a little more energy," she remarked. "I haven't worked since a year ago November, when I finished 'The Rains of Ranchipur.'"

"But just before I started this picture everything happened. There was the marriage breaking up, the television show with Bob Hope, and the business with my daughter."

She referred to Cheryl's refusal to return to a private school.

May-Bright Engagement Announced

Mrs. Brad Bright announced the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Joan, to Galen May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest May of Hope. Miss Bright is the daughter of the late Judge Bright of Prescott.

Mrs. Floyd Hubbard, president of the chapter, presided at the punch bowl. White roses in crystal containers and red roses in silver containers were placed at other points of vantage.

Manager of Holman to Go to Court

PORTLAND, Ore. (UP)—Fight Manager Bernie Clickman threatened today to "go to court" to protest Nino Valdes' victory over Johnny Holman last night at Portland Auditorium.

The ponderous Cuban heavyweight was awarded a unanimous decision in the nationally televised bout, but Clickman pleaded with commissioners that the fight was improperly scored, that Valdes repeatedly hit low, and that Valdes manager, Bobby Gleason, had illegally "swung the ropes."

The scorers used the old California "11 point" system, but came up with 11 point totals instead of 10.

The scoring, as originally announced, showed Valdes the winner, 57½-53½, on Judge Eddie Volk's card, and 59-52 on Judge Andy Crabtree's card.

When the error was discovered, the commission deducted a point from Holman's total on both cards. Ralph Gruman's score, 56½-53½, was allowed to stand. The Poland commission disallowed the protest, but fined Gleason $100 for his action. Gleason screamed, "the fine is an outrage."

Several times in the late rounds, when both fighters were apparently tiring, Holman pinned Valdes to ropes near the Cuban's corner. It was then that Gleason pulled at the ropes to discourage Holman. The action was visible on television screens.

Ninth ranked Valdes, 207, used his greater reach to pile up a big early lead. He withstood mild assaults by Holman, 204, in the fourth, fifth and seventh rounds.

Valdes has now won seven in a row since his knockout loss to Eddie Machen.

Gibraltar was occupied by the British in 1704.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has designated Johnson and Pope counties in Arkansas as emergency relief areas because mid-April freezes caused havoc to peach crops. The action allows eligible farmers to obtain government loans.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—Price A. Dickson, 53, former city attorney here, died at a Fayetteville hospital yesterday. A native of Bentonville, Dickson also had served as U. S. commissioner here.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Power Commission has announced that

Mississippi River Fuel Corp., St. Louis, has withdrawn a proposal to build about $11,000,000 worth of additional natural gas pipeline facilities in Arkansas, Louisiana and Missouri. No reason for the withdrawal was given.

Normal persons blink their eyes at the rate of 25 times per minute. World's largest producer of tin is Malaya, in the South China Sea.
